Rochester Rifle Club New Membership Procedure

New applicants MUST be currently active members of the National Rifle Association (NRA) and must provide proof. Proof of NRA membership must contain your name, your address, your membership number and your membership expiration date on the same document. The following are the only items accepted as proof of NRA membership:

- 1) A current NRA address label from one of the NRA publications (America's 1st Freedom, American Hunter, or American Rifleman).
- 2) A letter or FAX from the NRA containing the above required information. To obtain this letter or FAX from NRA membership, call 1-800-672-3888 and follow these instructions exactly: Dial the number, do not press any numbers and wait for the switchboard operator. Ask to be connected to an NRA membership representative in Fairfax, Virginia. Ask that representative to send you a letter or FAX with your membership information. Be sure to tell him to include all 4 items (name, address, membership number and expiration date).
- 3) Visit the NRA member's site at <http://nramemberservices.org>. Log in or create your account. To create an account click on "Register for free" and follow the instructions. Once in the site, click on "Change Your Account Settings." Print the first page and include it with the application. At the time of this printing, the required information is included on that page.

New applicants MUST also be sponsored by a currently active RRC member. Those needing help with sponsorship may visit the club during an activities to meet with an officer or director. See our online calendar (<http://calendar.rochesterrifleclub.org>). Alternatively, contact the membership director for other options.

Applications without proof of NRA membership and sponsorship will be returned!

Once this application is accepted by the membership director, an invitation to a New Member's Orientation class and a copy of the range rules is sent. After successful completion of that class, payment will be accepted and a keycard to the club will be issued. Please also know that new applicants will be required to sign a waiver to release RRC from any liability before allowed to join. The waiver can be viewed at: <http://waiver.rochesterrifleclub.org>.

Spouse and junior members must also complete a basic firearms safety course to use the range and become an RRC club members. This requirement can be fulfilled by showing evidence of military service, attending a DEC hunter safety training class, a BSA gun safety course or by attending a firearm safety course at RRC. Attending a New Member's Orientation class is also an acceptable fulfillment of this requirement.

General Information about the club

The Rochester Rifle Club is a civilian shooting organization affiliated with the NRA since 1914. The RRC provides an indoor shooting range for air guns, 22 rimfire rifles and handguns of most non-magnum calibers. The range has 12 positions with target stops at 10 meters for air rifle/pistol and 50 feet for firearms. The club is a membership, non-profit organization. All the officers and directors are unpaid volunteers. The club is available 24/7 for member's casual shooting except during regularly scheduled programs. New members are encouraged to check out our various programs which include several junior programs for boys and girls 12 years and older, the Community Pistol League (CPL), and Sporterifle (22 rimfire rifle competition). More information about RRC and its programs can be found on our website at: <http://rochesterrifleclub.org>
